

Aren't we a big enough country where anyone can compete - not just the people who can afford lobbyists??????? Please let XM Radio continue their programming as it currently exists. In addition to continual, clear music, the weather & traffic are added benefits. You should try it - radio without someone always yelling at you to buy their product. Heaven!!!

Ann Sheehan

Roseville, California